

Improve Employee Engagement

Measure yourself against the best with Great Place to Work's certification survey, then use your detailed results and our powerful suite of tools to improve your employee experience. Our online survey platform is customizable and configurable to your organization so it's easy-to-use, helps leaders uncover gaps quickly and provides data-backed, relevant recommendations.

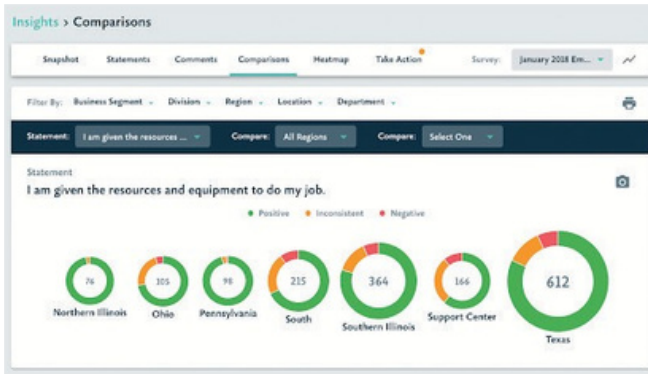

Data Customized for Your Organization

- Understand your organization's unique strengths and top opportunities for improvement in seconds.
- Share results instantly online – and leaders see results for their employees only.
- Get results immediately after your survey closes – for your organization and custom groups, such as department, location, region, service line, etc.

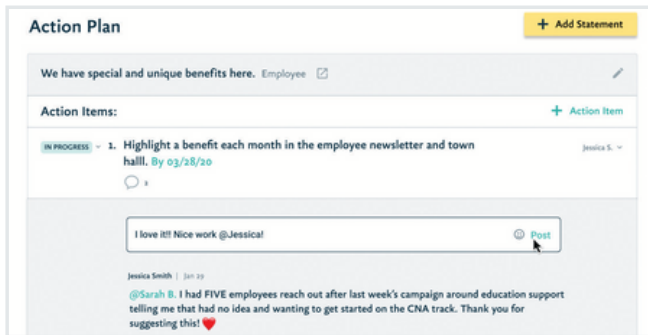

Personalized Recommendations for Every Leader

- Each location, service line, region, etc. sees exactly what they need to work on to improve, based on the feedback from their employees.
- For each recommended area, know which specific groups and core issues to focus on.
- Target scores show how proposed changes can impact your employee experience.

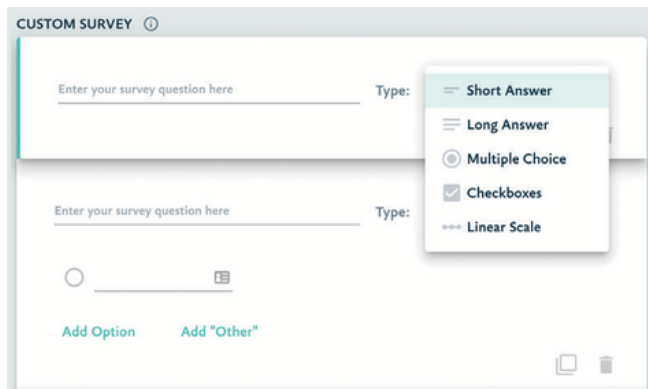

Compare Different Groups to Uncover Issues Quickly

- Understand at a glance which employees are having a less favorable experience.
- Use multi-level filters to understand experience by demographics.
- Target specific issues and groups in the action planning process.

Easy-to-Use Action Plans and Collaboration Tools

- Leaders receive suggestions on how they can improve and encouragement from your team.
- Project management tools to assign owners for tasks, set due dates, and track progress.
- Work collaboratively across teams and receive action plan updates via email.

Ongoing Feedback for Data-Driven Decisions

- Survey newly acquired locations to get a baseline before integration occurs.
- Fully integrated pulse surveys serve as progress checks as you work to improve.
- Onboarding/exit survey to get feedback from employees at important transition times.
